Tribal Government for Sitka, Alaska

Career Opportunity:

Healing To Wellness Court Program Manager

Sitka Tribe of Alaska (STA) is seeking a Program Manager for its new Healing to Wellness Court, a jail diversion program for individuals who have committed nonviolent substance abuse-related crimes. The structure for the new court and all protocols are in place. The Program Manager will be responsible for day-to-day operation of the court from its very first case. They will serve as a liaison between the Tribal government, state court and local law enforcement personnel, and community service providers. They will promote the mission of the program in Sitka. The Program Manager will oversee a Community Supervision Officer who will work with individuals in the diversion program. This position offers an exciting opportunity to build a restorative justice program that promotes Tribal values and individual and community wellbeing.

The Program Manager will have empathy and respect for individuals with a history of substance abuse, a personal commitment to restorative justice, great people skills, and excellent judgement. Previous program management or analogous experience required. A bachelor's degree in social work or criminal justice and at least a year of professional experience in human services and/or criminal justice is preferred. Cultural competency with Native people is required. The successful applicant must be able to pass a criminal background check and have or be able to obtain an Alaska's driver's license.

STA is a sovereign Tribal government in Sitka, Alaska, an island community of 8,500 residents in Southeast Alaska. Sitka is a beautiful community with a high quality of life. STA has a healthy workplace culture and offers an outstanding benefit package including health, dental, vision, short-term disability and life insurance, 401k matching and generous paid time off and wellness benefits. This position is open to all applicants; Tribal/Native preference in hiring applies. A full job description and application is available on STA's website. Compensation depends on qualifications, beginning at $50,973. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
